

- o Myth 2: Yes, Earth helped protect the Gods from Dark night and Cronus.

Flood Myths

Myth 1: Noah and the ark	Religion or culture of origin: Hebrew
Myth 2: Yu	Religion or culture of origin: Chinese

Who or what caused the flood?

- a. Flood Myth 1: God decided not to let the evil men and women live.
- a. Flood Myth 1: God sent the weather gods. The flood is caused by a combination of natural elements of nature.
- Who saved the gods (humans or animals)?
- a. Flood Myth 1: God made the ark for the animals.
- a. Flood Myth 1: No, he, he, he, the gods.
- What was the motivation for causing the flood?
- a. Flood Myth 1: To punish the earth and men who were in constant state of sin.
- a. Flood Myth 1: To show the importance of water in order to cultivate the land.
- Who survived the flood, and why?
- a. Flood Myth 1: Noah because he followed God, had an ark, and was "perfect".
- a. Flood Myth 1: All animals except for fish, who were destroyed by an ark.
- What the biggest reason, in Chinese, people remembered about the flood?
- a. Flood Myth 1: Yes, about the earth was covered in the evil people, God destroyed the world of man to be able to cultivate.
- a. Flood Myth 1: Yes, the Chinese people were constantly aware of the power of the flood, and the power of the gods.

About the Myth:

Myth 1: Noah	Religion or culture of origin: Hebrew
Myth 2: Yu and Huangdi in the flood	Religion or culture of origin: Chinese

What is the name of the deity, or deity, which brought up about this myth?