

A LITTLE HELP FROM FOOTBALL

Underline each helping verb and circle each main verb.
If there is a word between the main verb and helping verb,
write the sentence number and the word on a football.

1. My sister is buying tickets for the big game.
2. She should arrive at the ticket booth early.
3. They will probably sell all the good seats before this afternoon.
4. Fans will come to the stadium hours before the game.
5. Our team could go all the way to the Super Bowl!
6. Dad would never miss a game.
7. Sam will usually paint his face silver and blue.
8. I should make a sign for tomorrow's big game.
9. We can see ourselves on the stadium's jumbo screen.
10. Fay has sometimes lost her voice from cheering.
11. During a game, my brother will normally eat five hot dogs.
12. The other team's fans do not like our coach at all.
13. The coach will never smile into the television camera.
14. Last year our fans would always yell louder than the other team's fans.
15. Our car is parked right outside the stadium.

There are 28 helping verbs!

am	have
are	is
be	may
been	might
bring	must
can	shall
could	should do	was
doe	were
does	will
had	would has

Bonus: Write five sentences about football or another sport. Use a helping verb and an action verb in each sentence.