

Stately Riddles

Answer each riddle with the name of a state.

- I make my home in the northernmost corner of the western United States.
Which state am I? _____
- Having the largest land area in the continental United States, I am a star-studded state! Which state am I? _____
- I'm a four-corner state that lies due west of Kansas.
Which state am I? _____
- My western border makes up a large part of the United States' Pacific Ocean coastline.
Which state am I? _____
- I don't share a border with any other US state, and you have to go through Canada to get to me.
Which state am I? _____
- My "pan handle" touches Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, and Texas.
Which state am I? _____
- My islands form a chain in the Pacific Ocean.
Which state am I? _____
- A strip of my land is sandwiched between Washington and Montana.
Which state am I? _____
- Located on the Gulf of Mexico, I could give Mississippi a boost.
Which state am I? _____
- Both of the Dakotas meet my western border.
Which state am I? _____
- With the Gulf of Mexico to my west and the Atlantic Ocean to my east, I'm a peninsula.
Which state am I? _____
- The word south makes me different than my coastal sister state.
Which state am I? _____
- I am the smallest state in the New England region and the smallest in the rest of the United States, too!
Which state am I? _____
- The Great Lakes split me right in two!
Which state am I? _____
- I share my name with the state that shares most of my western border.
Which state am I? _____

Which state is the smartest?
To find out, write each circled letter on its matching numbered line or lines.

1 2 3 4 5 6
 7 8 9 10 11
 12 13 14 15
 16 17 18 19
 20 21 22 23

Bonus: Choose five more states and write a riddle for each one.