

6th Grade English Study Guide for Semester 1 Exam

PART 1: READING COMPREHENSION

On the exam: There will be two comprehension activities just as you did in class. 16 points. Suggested time 25 minutes.

To study: Do the practice comprehension handout/s given to you during review week. Remember to use reading strategies practiced in class. There are more to practice from if you want. See your teacher.

PART 2: Parts of Speech

On the exam: You will need to know the definition for the four parts of speech below. You will need to find the part of speech in a sentence. You will need to identify the part of speech of a given word in a sentence. 16 points. Suggested time: 10 minutes.

To study: Complete the follow practice. If you want more practice, create your own samples, and have your teacher check your answers.

Directions: Write the definition (in words you understand) for the following parts of speech:

Verb: _____

Noun: _____

Adjective: _____

Adverb: _____

Directions: Decide whether the underlined word is an example of a noun, verb, adverb, or adjective. In the space provided write Noun for noun, Verb for verb, Adverb for adverb, or Adj. for adjective.

1. _____ The inhabitants had lived there for years.
2. _____ That was a far-fetched idea if I ever heard one.
3. _____ The students were motivated by their friends.
4. _____ After the test, she quietly left the room.