

Examples of Poetry

Acrostic Poem-Write letters in capital going down the page. Think about a word or phrase describing the plant or animal. Using each letter as a beginning, write about your subject.

Fanciful	Slow
Everlasting	Long Arms
Rainforest	Odd
Natural	Three-toed
	Hooked Claws

Limericks-A five line poem. The first two and the last line rhyme are longer than the second two rhyming lines.

There once was a frog named Croak.
If you ever saw it you would choke.
It wore a bat.
On top of a hat.
It was always playing a joke.

Cinquain-is a five line poem describing a particular subject according to the poetry.

Plants
Pretty, Colorful
Helpful, Grows, Living
Silly Willies
Green Things

Couplet-A two line poem that rhymes.

The butterfly's wings were so bright.
They glimmered in the sun's light!