

Did You Say "Allergies"?

An allergy is the body's reaction to some animal, vegetable or chemical substances. Usually harmless, these substances can cause an over-reaction in some people which can be very annoying!

Allergenic substances are all around us.

Which allergenic insects are plentiful in pets' coats and on the things they use? .....
Do you know of any other allergen often carried by animals
.....

Put the words in the correct positions in the text.

Allergens / cats / pollen / coat / pets / reactions / contact / frequents 50% of allergic children are sensitive to.....spread by dogs and
.....They could be substances secreted by the animal itself, or
.....and other parasites carried in its ....., feathers or skin.....can provoke strong .....

Two principal causes of allergic reaction are :.....with the animal or a susceptible person being in a place the animal regularly

