

Grand Canyon Facts

- The canyon is the biggest in the world (277 miles long and 18 miles wide at some points).
- The layers of rock are various colors. They seem to change tones as the sun moves.
- Animals such as beavers, elk, mountain lions, and snakes live in the area.
- Some tourists hike, ride mules, or ride rafts in the canyon.

