

Arriving Late To Class

Mr. Gifford's class was very noisy and unorganized. Mr. Gifford usually began his lessons with a story. The students would finish the story.

The Day of John and Mr. Gifford

John was in Mr. Gifford's class. He had just finished his story and was sitting at his desk. He was looking at the story.

John was looking at the story and was thinking about the story. He was thinking about the story and was thinking about the story.

John was looking at the story and was thinking about the story. He was thinking about the story and was thinking about the story.

