

9. Matching words with its definition.

Salivary gland	1) Glands that secrete mucus, which the oral cavity is often lined.
Esophagus	2) Muscular organ that carries food from the esophagus into the cavity of the stomach. It usually is 25 cm long.
Small intestine	3) The long part of the digestive tract where digestion begins.
Large intestine	4) The last part of the digestive tract where it absorbs and concentrates wastes.
Stomach	5) The organ where the food is ground into the chyme food.
Gallary	6) The organ that stores bile that later is the digests.
Pancreas	7) Endocrine gland.
Liver	8) The main digestive organ that produces bile and is part of the biliary system.
Spleen	9) An accessory organ that produces immune response during infectious processes.

10. Use the following pictures using the words from activity 9.