

Name:

Date:

Peer Relationship Worksheets

Tell about your experiences communicating with peers to express yourself.

How do you individually go about appreciating the viewpoints of others and demonstrating compassion in your friendships?

Consider the methods you employ to settle disputes with friends.

To what extent can honesty and dependability contribute to the development of trust in one's friendships?

Talk about times when you've established and upheld personal limits with your peers.

Could you tell your peers about a time when you and your peers worked well together?

Explain how your interpersonal abilities help you form and preserve friendships.

Consider the effects of the times you've gotten help and inspiration from friends.

Using what you have experienced, discuss the characteristics you think make a successful friendship.