

"If You Give A ..."

Mad Lib

If you give a _____ a _____, hatches is going to ask for a _____ (person) (object) (person)

When you give hatches the _____, hatches will want to _____ (best memory) (event)

When hatches is finished, hatches will _____ (write)

Then hatches will _____ and _____ to the _____ (write) (write) (country)

Since that doesn't work out, hatches will want to go to _____ (location)

On the way, hatches will see a _____ and will want _____
(person) (person)

Then you will have to take hatches to the _____, hatches will _____ (location) (write)

When hatches is done, hatches will ask you for some _____, On the way home (food)

hatches will start a game of _____, When you finally get home, you'll have (game)

to _____, Then hatches will want a _____, You'll have to find a _____ (write) (write) (person)

and _____, When hatches sees the _____, hatches will start (object name) (best memory)

(write ending in -egg)

Then hatches will _____ out of _____, Of course, when hatches is finished (write) (plural noun)

hatches will want to _____, So, hatches will ask for a _____, And otherwise you (write) (best memory)

If you give hatches a _____, hatches is going to want a _____
(person) (person)

PlayDiction