

1. Write the comparative and the superlative forms of the following adjectives.

POSITIVE	COMPARATIVE	SUPERLATIVE old big heavy exciting good boring
bad more easy small difficult

2. Fill in the gaps with the comparative form of the adjectives in brackets.

- a) My bag is (big) yours.
- b) Studying is (important) playing computer games.
- c) A kilo of rocks isn't (heavy) a kilo of sugar.
- d) Cristiano Ronaldo is (famous) Bill Gates.
- e) I think that cats are (good) pets (good) dogs.
- f) Killing is a (crime) (serious) stealing.
- g) A Fiat car is (cheap) a Ferrari.

3. Use the superlative form of the adjectives in brackets.

- a) Wall-Mart is (rich) group of shops in the world. It sells $ 82.5 billion every year.
- b) Toys'R' Us has got (large) toy shop in the world. It's 4,038 Sqm.
- c) The BIC Crystal pen is (popular) pen in the world: people buy 1.5 million every day.
- d) (expensive) shoes that you can buy in a shop cost $ 15,000.
- e) At 308 km/h, the Lamborghini Diablo GT is (fast) road car that you can buy.
- f) Casa Botin in Madrid is (old) restaurant in the world. It opened in 1725.

4. Fill in the gaps with the comparative or the superlative forms of the adjectives given.

In a survey of 2,000 British kids in a teenage magazine, the kids voted that science teachers are the (boring) of all. The (popular) subjects in the survey are art, PE and English. English is (popular) than maths. That's possibly because many students find maths (difficult) than English and their maths marks are (bad) than their English marks. For the majority of students, PE is the (boring) subject of all, and the (funny). 10% of the kids love school and 70% think it's OK; it's (good) than staying at home all day. Perhaps the (bad) thing of all about school is homework. Most 15-year-old students spend 1 hour 28 minutes on homework each week.