

Will You Make Cents in the New Century?

1. For my career in the new millennium, the equipment I am already most prepared to use is:
A) A computer network
B) The internet
C) A hair net
2. I'll be ready when all mail is electronic mail because I already know that an EDP is:
A) Inches Sized Postcards sent by computer, that smell good too!
B) Irrelevant Stamped Postcards that are sent by computer and glow in the dark
C) An Internet Service Provider who links you to the internet.
3. When discussing chips, I feel knowledgeable enough to discuss:
A) The most important reasons to select fast computer chips
B) The most important reasons to buy only computers that use Intel chips
C) The most important reasons to buy two chips not potato chips
4. When people talk about the new millennium, I know that they're referring to:
A) That hot, new grunge group from Seattle, 10,000 Millennium
B) The mineral found in milk that you have to get 1,000 milligrams of every day
C) The 1,000 years that began in the year 1,000
5. I'm ready to deal with high tech problems like gum that will occur in this new century because I know:
A) That Gum is best served hot
B) That Gum is best when not served at all
C) That Gum can clog up e-mail terribly, making it hard to notice important items
6. In this new millennium, almost everything will be run by computers, and computers often have problems. To fix a computer, sometimes you have to:
A) Throw your best at it.
B) Just look at it.
C) Fix it.
7. One of the most exciting, high-paying jobs that will exist in this new century is webmasters, who:
A) Work with spiders
B) Work only on Halloween
C) Work to create and manage internet sites
8. When people ask me if my home, business or work place has wi-fi, they mean:
A) Do I have wild hair?
B) Do I have wine flies?
C) Is there a wireless internet connection?
9. Soon, everyone may need to use the net, so you'll need to know that on the net, a cookie is:
A) A virtual treat that's good with milk
B) An item sold by Old Seattle
C) Information that people on the net can gather about you without you even knowing

SCORING:

- 6-9 Right...You'll Be Master of the Millennium
- 4-5 Right...You May Be Mystified by the Millennium
- 3 or Less Right...Don't Start the Millennium Without More Education!