

Checking Account

A. Reading

Rene is engaged to her boyfriend Kyle. They plan to get married in May, and they are celebrating it with a month-long wedding and honeymoon. Kyle wants to open a joint checking account to help with their money, but Rene wants to. She likes having her own bank account. She has a savings account and a checking account, and she doesn't want another account. Kyle is stressed with his money, and if he opens a joint account with Rene, he might not have to explain why she withdraws money from the account. He might even tell her why she takes the money out, which means she would have to get permission if she doesn't want to. What should Rene do? Should she open a joint checking account with Kyle?
