

HOMOGRAPHY

Homographs are different words that are spelled the same. They have different meanings and origins. Homographs may or may not have the same pronunciation.

Many words have homographs. Some have the same word but different meanings. Some have the same spelling but different pronunciations.

Put in a line. Add a line. Add a line. Add a line. Add a line. Add a line.

1. The doctor does not have any more _____.
2. I couldn't _____ my feelings for _____.
3. Please _____ the _____.
4. The teacher _____ the _____ because of a _____.
5. The teacher _____ from her desk and _____ in the _____.
6. The _____ we will give the _____ and _____.
7. The _____ _____ the _____ and _____.
8. I couldn't _____ the _____ of _____.
9. The _____ is a _____ bag. My _____ is _____.
10. The _____ _____ the _____ and _____ to the _____ for _____.
11. There was a big fight during the party. The _____ _____ _____ and the _____ _____.
12. The _____ _____ about _____ about the _____.
13. The _____ _____ all of the _____ _____.
14. The _____ _____ the _____ _____.
15. I think _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____.

Read the sentences and write the homograph that fits the sentence.

1. Which word means a body part that is used to see?
2. Which word means difficult and almost not?
3. Which word means a big flying creature with the wings spread like a butterfly?
4. Which word means the opposite of bottom and also a verb?
5. Which word means a ball game played on a court?

Foot
Not
Not
Not Top

- Homograph with List match park know pop risk duck trip down fly live row punch right down bear