

Teacher's Notes

1. This is a reading of the "Shopping Survey" and a discussion of the survey. The purpose of this activity is to help students understand the survey and to discuss the survey results.

Have you ever shopped in a store? Was your experience good? Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor? How do you feel about the service in a store? How do you feel about the service in a store?

2. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store.

3. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store.

4. In "Number 2," the first sentence says "Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor?" The second sentence says "How do you feel about the service in a store?"

5. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store.

6. In "Number 2," the first sentence says "Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor?" The second sentence says "How do you feel about the service in a store?"

Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor? How do you feel about the service in a store? How do you feel about the service in a store?

7. In "Number 2," the first sentence says "Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor?" The second sentence says "How do you feel about the service in a store?"

Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor? How do you feel about the service in a store? How do you feel about the service in a store?

8. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store.

Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor? How do you feel about the service in a store? How do you feel about the service in a store?

9. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store.

10. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store. The survey asks about the quality of the service in a store.

Have you ever shopped in a store where the service was poor? How do you feel about the service in a store? How do you feel about the service in a store?

NOTE: This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose. The survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

Copyright © 2000 by Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved. This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

NOTE: This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose. The survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

Copyright © 2000 by Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved. This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

NOTE: This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose. The survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

Copyright © 2000 by Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved. This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

NOTE: This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose. The survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

Copyright © 2000 by Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved. This survey is for educational purposes only. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.