

Rosa Parks Rides a Bus

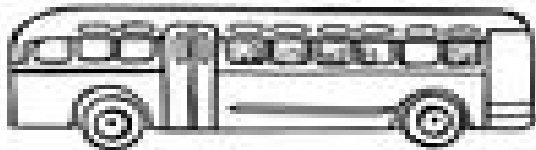

Name _____

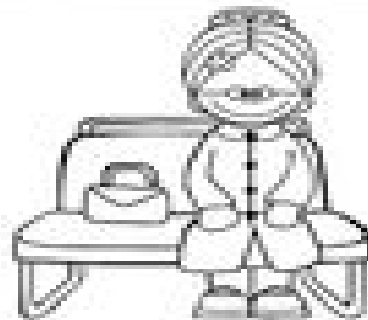

My name is Rosa Parks.
Many years ago, I was riding a bus home from work and something important happened.

2.

I was sitting on the bus going home. At the next stop, a white man got on and told me to stand up so he could sit.

3.

Back then, black people had to give up their seats to white people if there were no seats. I was tired and nicely
told him, "No".
