

David Martin

PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW:

An experienced Senior International Security Management Professional with a proven track record of success in Business Continuity full life cycle; large Business Continuity, Security Director for Fortune 100 Wireless Telecom Company. A leader in Business Continuity Management; emergency response, crisis management and business recovery planning at large global corporations; an excellent working knowledge of risk management and risk assessment tools, techniques, physical security and Information security Triad.

Strong pro-active leader able to take ownership, provide expertise and mentoring to build cohesive teams while implementing corporate strategy and policies within changing business environments.

Excellent relationship management and interpersonal skills with multicultural experience gained through many years living within a wide range of cultures. Ability to "fit" corporate plans into varying cultures and customs allowing ownership of projects at a local level.

Specializing in Risk Management Strategy development skills and redundancy planning achieving high levels of success through a unique know-how in communication exercising between critical elements in the Disaster Recovery and Business Recovery process.

Experienced in strategic risk analysis, recognising risk in business planning, across a variety of industries, disaster recovery / fallback solutions in enterprise impact analysis, investigation, high level security management; complex security project management and implementation, large external contract negotiation, facilitating preventative & investigative procedures including chain of custody. With over 18 years involved with Multi National Corporations at a physical and technical level, reported at board level, persuasive management and excellent presentation skills.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- 1 Provided secure and pro-active professional security services, targeting enterprise wide Business Continuity Projects, Corporate Security and Business Disaster Recovery Management.
- 2 Enabled corporations to make informed and pro-active decisions during implementation and growth phasing through redundancy planning from plans to finished product.
- 3 Recognised as a specialist and pioneer in the Security Triangle; Prevention, Process and People and aligned with expert project management skills, successfully implemented several complex projects within budget.
- 4 Offered pro-active recommendations based on investigations into latest industry advances in Europe & USA.
- 5 Created sustainable & social responsible business practices in line with international & world best standard.
- 6 Experience of applying a wide range of infrastructure technologies to support full life cycle BCM process.
- 7 Working knowledge of BSI, credited and certified by the Business Continuity Institute.
- 8 Extensive experience of managing third party suppliers and support function providers.
- 9 Extensive managerial experience including senior (CTO/CIO/COO) management and staff.