William Shakespeare

Born: 23 April 1564 - died: 23 April 1616

William Shakespeare was born in Stratford-upon-Avon in Warwickshire. He was baptised in the church of St Mary's Church, Stratford-upon-Avon, on 26 April 1564.

In his early school years he studied Latin, English, French and Italian. At the age of 14 he married a woman called Anne Hathaway, the daughter of a farmer. A year after they were married they had a daughter together and then had two sons in 1585. Very little is known about Shakespeare's activities from 1585 - 1592. During this period he went to London where he began a successful career as a playwright and actor. In his 20s and 30s he wrote his plays, his sonnets and many poems. Today, he is still popular with many audiences of all generations.

Shakespeare's most famous plays include Hamlet, Macbeth, Romeo and Juliet and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Shakespeare retired to Stratford in the years before his death. He died on 23 April 1616 and was buried in the Holy Trinity Church two days after his death.

The play Twelfth Night is Shakespeare's favourite. It is written below.
