

Earth Day Bloopers

Copy! The Earth Day messages Miss Clean's class is making to promote a cleaner environment contain mistakes! Each message is missing its first letter and one or more commas. Add the missing letters and commas. Then color the symbol at the end of each message to explain the use of the comma(s). The first one has been done for you.

= in a series

= after an introductory word

= in a compound sentence

1. Encourage others to reduce, reuse, and recycle.
2. ___ay everyone should put litter in its place.
3. ___ave fuel by walking or you could try riding a bike.
4. ___arious types of pollution make our air land and water dirty.
5. ___et's learn ways to keep the environment clean by reading books and we can also find out by watching TV programs and videos.
6. ___es each person should do his part to take care of the earth.
7. ___ry to use less water when brushing teeth showering and cleaning the house.
8. ___ne person alone can't solve the pollution problem but each person should do all he can.
9. ___its can you help us stop polluting our planet?
10. ___ow don't you recycle?
11. ___ipose of trash chemicals and wastes properly.
12. ___ecycle plastic glass paper and metal.
13. ___ake a commitment to clean up reduce and recycle all the trash being created.
14. ___t's never too late to help and you can start today.

Miss Clean contributed a message, too. To find out what it is, fill in the blanks below by matching each first letter with its corresponding number.

E	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _	_ _ _
_	_	_	_	_	_	_	_	_	_

Secret Hint: On the back of this page, write three Earth Day sentences of your own: one using commas in a series, one using an introductory word, and one compound sentence.