

AIRPORT

A--What time does your plane leave?

B--It leaves at 12:45, but I have to check at departures again, when I arrive there.

A--When do you have to be at the airport?

B--I have to be two hours early so I have to be at the airport at 10:15 and then I have to go to the check in desk. An hour later I have to go to the customs section and then go through the immigration section into the departures lounge. I have to wait there for another hour or so before I board the plane.

A--That means we have to leave the house at 9:15.

B--Well it's an hour to get there, if there are no traffic problems. So maybe better if we leave at 8:25?

A--Yes, it's better to get there too early than too late.

B--I agree. You never know what might happen on those freeways. There's at least one huge accident everyday. I'm also nervous about the time the plane takes off. It's my first time flying. When I arrive in New York and the plane lands on the runway, Gordon has to be at arrivals waiting for me. We have to go to the meeting and then when I get back from New York I have to inform in the office about my business trip.
