Behavior Change – Two Paths

Directions: On a half worksheet, answer each question using a complete sentence.

1. What was your behavior? (10+ words)

2. Why did you behave that way? (10+ words)

3. How did your behavior stop the learning environment for you, your classmates, and/or your teacher? (10+ words)

4. How do you plan to change your behavior in the future? (10+ words)

Now copy the paragraph onto the back of this worksheet in your best handwriting (print or cursive is fine). Sloppy work = you do it again.

I have a choice about my attitude and my behavior. There are two paths I can take in life. One is the bad path. It leads to unhappiness and disappointment. I am on this path when I am mean, disruptive, and rude. This path is not worth my time. The other path is the good path, which leads to a happy and successful life. I am on this path when I am respectful and responsible. I am responsible for my own behavior and choices. I can make good decisions and be successful in my life. I choose the good path!
