

THE NATIVE AMERICAN CHIEF AND WAR MAKEUP

1. What were three main duties of a Native American Chief?
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
2. In some tribes, Chiefdom was inherited. In other tribes a warrior had to prove himself. What traits did an Indian need in order to become chief?
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
3. Why did Native Americans apply war paint before going into battle?

4. Face paint was applied prior to which of the following events? Circle all that apply.
 - a. Ceremonies
 - b. Meals
 - c. Rituals
 - d. Dancing
 - e. Funerals
5. What were the three steps in preparing face paint?
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.

- | | | |
|------|-------|---|
| True | False | All Native American Tribes followed the same rules and had the same organization. |
| True | False | Women were never chiefs in Native American Tribes. |
| True | False | Native Americans wore paint on their bodies as well as their faces. |
| True | False | All face paint was war paint. |