

Persuasive Letters

Ben wants to persuade his parents to let him stay up later. As part of his reader plan, he is going to write a persuasive letter to convince them to change his bedtime. This first writing is a draft but you'll decide what is the most persuasive. Read both drafts and then answer the questions at the end.

LETTER A

Dear Mom and Dad,

I want to stay up later four days of the weekend. You make me go to bed at 8:00 and its not fair.

If you let me stay up later I would be really tired and I like video to watch TV for longer and I get excited I want to play computer game for two hours a day.

I want to stay up at least until 1:00, make sure until 10:00. That is what I would be good if you would let me stay up later and then I would get the nice to go to bed later than I do now.

I get mad to have more time to play and I want to that go to bed at work.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Your son,

Ben
