

Worksheet 2: Setting priorities for teaching self-discipline

Name: Mrs. Langley Date: September 20
 Student or group: English class Grade: 5

Goals for Teaching:	Priority Level (1, 2, or 3):
Goals related to academic achievement
Learn to complete homework, projects, tests and other assignments	2
Learn to understand the concepts presented in the English curriculum	2
Learn to use work and study habits needed for learning the material	2
Goals related to participation in classroom or school activities
Learn to ask questions when help is needed	2
Learn to follow the rules and routines of the setting or activity	3
Learn to comply with teacher directions for assignments and activities	2
Learn to follow along and complete tasks and activities	3
Learn to pay attention in class and participate actively	2
Goals related social behavior
Learn to make friends and get along with classmates	3
Learn to cooperate with teachers and classmates	1
Learn to play games and participate in recreational activities	3
Learn to respect others and their belongings	3
Learn to show sensitivity for the moods and feelings of others	1
Goals related to physical and emotional development
Learn to maintain good health and hygiene, e.g., wear coats in cold weather, wash hands after using the bathroom	3
Learn to use class and personal time productively	3
Learn to take responsibility and initiative for learning and achievement	2
Learn to take initiative in dealing with own problems	3