

A border is a boundary or imaginary line that separates countries or states from each other.

The state capital is a city where laws are made for a state.

Government buildings are also located in a state's capital.

©2007-2011 NeoLithix, LLC Patent Pending All Rights Reserved