

Paraphrase the sentences below using: the colon, the semicolon or the hyphen.

1. Of this I am sure I do not want to work myself to death anymore.
2. We have to abandon our holiday plans the dates don't work out.
3. Mom may have got to go to the hospital apparently she's got a kidney infection.
4. My conviction is "Every human being has the right to be free, no matter what the circumstances involved."
5. In the words of Oscar Wilde "I can resist anything except temptation."
6. The matter is how can we help her recover health?
7. Three countries were represented England, France and Belgium.
8. Remember to bring to registration the following two sharpened pencils, an eraser, your confirmation card and a check for $50.00.
9. We need three kinds of support economic, political and moral.
10. There is something I would never part with my cat Puffy.
11. Dear sir
12. Dear Susan
13. The plane left at 8:00 sharp.
14. Some people have the ability to write with others don't.
15. Speeding is illegal furthermore it's very dangerous.
16. Computers have become cheaper hence more and more people are buying one.
17. Your tasks today are send copies to our offices in Portland Maine Springfield Illinois and Savannah Georgia.
18. As a manager she tried to do the best she could that is to keep her project on schedule and under budget.
19. Toronto and Gertrude are my sisters in law. They're very attractive women.
20. Bill, who is a forty year old man, is a good for nothing person.
21. I can't do many things with this hard earned money.
22. The candidate received a two thirds majority of the votes.

By Adil Khan