

Name _____

Date _____

Peachy Punctuation

Directions: After reading Chapters 9-16, cut out the peaches and glue the peach with the correct ending punctuation at the end of each sentence.

1. Could I please have something to eat first
2. You had better cut it out
3. He noticed that there was a small door
4. I am absolutely famished
5. What's the matter with you
6. Oh dear, oh dear, what an awful thought
7. James decided that he liked the Centipede
8. You and I are never going to get any sleep at this rate
9. The peach was rolling and bouncing down the hill
10. The peach was only 100 yards away from the cliff
11. Would it ever stop
12. It came up again and floated on the water

