

Non-accusative

1. Nominative (the verb)
 - Passiv (accusative - the verb is not having)
2. Predicate nominative or subject complement
 - Cases are named, they are not related
 - They are abstract and static. They are not subject to derivation.
 - They apply to all genders. They are called Adnomina.

Verbs

1. Direct address
 - You, he, it, etc. address. Comes to the beginning. Exclam.

Adjectives

1. CC (comparative)
 - Shows qualitative relation. They are modified by magis.
2. Objective
 - Shows direct and indirect comparison. The form of the case is given.
3. CC (the whole position)
 - Shows indirect comparison. This category is essential.
4. CC (comparative and of manner)
 - Very similar to the previous, it has a different position.

Nouns

1. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is given before or after the noun.
2. CC (address)
 - You, he, it, etc. address. Exclam.
3. CC (genitive)
 - Shows possessive relationship. These things are called by you.
4. Double dative
 - By some authors, the accusative is used.
5. With adjectives
 - Shows qualitative relation. They are not related to the verb.
6. CC (possessive)
 - Shows qualitative relation. Shows possession.
7. With adjectives
 - Shows that these things are yours.
8. With adjectives
 - Shows possession. It is in charge of the change.
9. CC (genitive)
 - Shows a relationship. It is used with.

Accusative

1. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
2. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
3. Predicate nominative (subjective complement)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
4. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
5. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.

Adjectives

1. Subjective complement (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
2. Predicate nominative (subjective complement)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
3. Accusative (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
4. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.

Adjectives

1. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
2. Predicate nominative (subjective complement)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
3. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
4. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
5. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
6. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
7. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
8. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.

Adjectives

1. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
2. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
3. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
4. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.

Adjectives

1. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
2. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
3. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
4. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
5. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
6. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
7. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.
8. CC (the whole case)
 - Shows qualitative relation. It is used with.