Petey and Raeghie were exploring last Saturday. Petey carried a net and a bag to put specimens in. Raeghie ran ahead and stuck his nose into a bush searching. Petey followed behind bending to grab a small, red and black, winged critter. Petey looked up, held out his hand, and decided to put on his extra-browned hat and jacket. He tucked the specimen bag under his jacket so it wouldn't get wet.

When the sun came back out and the clouds moved away, Petey and Raeghie sat down for lunch. Petey had a ham sandwich, and Raeghie had a big, juicy steak bone. After lunch was finished, the boys totted on home and observed their new pet. Later that day, the two played catch while the sun set. Summer was over, and Petey had to get up early tomorrow.
