

Southern New Hampshire College
ESL/English
Principles of Grammar

Name: _____ # _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Part 4: Rewrite the following sentences using appropriate prefix/suffix.

1. Because we see that it was a friend that day my class and I decided to take walk with other students.

2. Despite the temperature outside being cold, the teacher came to class.

3. As many people probably do, he looked the other way when he saw the teacher.

4. As we were feeling (sad) hungry and depressed, we decided to go to the

5. While we were talking about the judge, we didn't see any other students.

6. When the students were successful in the past, they felt very happy.

7. When we look back at what happened, we laugh about it.

8. One of the suggestions concerning how to organize a school party

9. An organized school party

10. When they were successful in the past, they were proud.

11. The student who was flying over the school campus.

12. The man who was organizing the party was taken to hospital.
