

REMEMBERING SEPTEMBER 11

For those who were not born or were too young to remember September 11, 2001, the event had numerous social and human implications for our nation and the world. Using this image of the devastated Twin Towers, and thinking about the heroic sacrifices made there and massive loss of life and the political and social changes due to the attack, write a brief essay (at least 2 paragraphs) explaining how you think this event impacted our nation, and changed your rights and freedoms.
