

Change the "y" to "i" before adding "ly"

For words ending in "y" change the "y" to "i" before adding "ly" to make the adverb.

example: heavy ~~y~~ i + ly = heavily It rained heavily for days.

Add "ly" to these words to make adverbs then use each word in a sentence

lazy _____

angry _____

busy _____

Write the above words in alphabetical order and then write the list again, showing their syllables.

an/g/l/ly _____

Add "ly" to make more adverbs and list some actions they might describe.

cosy + ly _____

tidy + ly _____

cheeky + ly _____

clumsy + ly _____

greedy + ly _____

jolly + ly _____

messy + ly _____

naughty + ly _____

sleepy + ly _____

pretty + ly _____

heartly + ly _____

rowdy + ly _____

sneaky + ly _____

untidy + ly _____

weary + ly _____

Here are some action words to get you started. Match them to the "ly" adverbs then think of some more.

wrote		stumbled	laughed
	painted	ate
sighed		slept	replied
	yawned	behaved
