AP GOVERNMENT WORKSHEET LINEBERRY CHAPTER 5 - CIVIL RIGHTS

- Multiple Choice

 1) Affirmative action is a policy in which
 - strict quotas limit the number of blacks and women who can fill certain positions. The government enforces laws guaranteeing equal opportunity.

 The least advanced among minorities and women are given job training.

 Special consideration is given to traditionally disadvantaged groups.
- 2) Today, the key dimensions of inequality in America on which debate about equality centers is
 - a) race and gender b) race and age c) gender and disability d) all of the above
- 3) The original Constitution
 - contained implications for equality in that the guaranteed rights were not denied to any group
 - denied certain rights to particular groups, such as blacks, because of the influence of slavery. Guaranteed equal protection of the laws. b)

 - Left the issue of equality up to the states.
- 4) Equal protection of the laws
 - means that states had to make their laws promote equality among persons.
 - b)
 - Provided a standard for constitutional interpretation.

 Emphasized that laws had to provide equivalent protection to all people.
 - Was guaranteed in the original Constitution.
- Throughout its political history, the principal minority group in the United States has been
 a) American Indians
 b) Hispanic Americans
 c) Black Americans
 d) All of the above
- 6) The immediate reaction to Brown v. Board of Education was

 - the desegregation of public schools in the South. The busing of students to achieve racially balanced schools.

 - The closing of schools in Topeka, Kansas A threat to close public schools and increased enrollment in private schools by whites in the South
- 7) The case of Swann v. Charlotte-Mecklenberg County Schools
 - Forbade segregation in such public facilities as hotels and restaurants. Expanded the right to vote

 - Permitted judges to end school segregation through busing Prohibited busing for school integration
- 8) Key strategies of the Civil Rights Movement included
 - d) all of the above a) sit-ins b) marches. c) civil disobedience.
- 9) By the 1970's

 - a) most white Americans were ambivalent to the goals of racial equality.
 b) Public opinion towards integration had changed very little since the 1950's
 c) An overwhelming majority of white Americans supported the goals of integration.
 d) The civil rights movement had alienated an overwhelming majority of white Americans.
- Blacks will soon be displaced as the largest minority group in the United States by
 a) Asian Americans
 b) American Indians
 c) Jewish Americans
 d) Hispanic Americans
- 11) The Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965.
 - applied only to the southern states
- c) protected the rights of all minoritiesd) did not apply to American Indians
- b) protected the rights of blacks only
- 12) Public policy toward women has been dominated by the principle of
 - a) equality b) protectionism c) feminism d) affirmative action