

Common Good

The principle of community leads directly to the principle of the common good. This principle teaches that because all people live, work, and fulfill themselves in community with one another, they must look not only to fulfill their individual good but to build a society that benefits all people. The Second Vatican Council defines the common good as "the sum of those conditions of social life which allow social

