$Fallacy\ Practice\ Worksheet\ #1.\ For\ each\ question\ below\ identify\ the\ fallacy\ from\ the\ given\ list.$ Answers are provided at the end of the worksheet.}

A. Hasty Generalization (Small Sample ) - Ch. 10; B. Biased Sample - Ch. 10; C. False Analogy; D. Argument from Popularity; (Ch. 5) E. Two Wrongs (Ch. 5); F. Red Herring (Ch. 5); G. "Factual Claims are Relative" fallacy (Fallacy	H. Wishful Thinking (Ch. 5); I. Rationalizing (Ch. 5); J. Scare Tactics (Ch. 5); K. Ad Hominem (Personal, Circumstantial, or Inconsistency) (Ch. 6); L. Genetic fallacy; M. Strawman
of Relativism or Subjectivism) (Ch. 6);	N. None
<ol> <li>If it is Strawman identify the argument that is being distorted;</li> <li>If False Analogy state the crucial dissimilarity in the two things being compared; also identify the sample and target.</li> <li>If it is a Generalization identify the sample and target</li> <li>If it is Red Herring, identify the original topic and the new, unrelated topic.</li> <li>For Fallacy of Relativism/Subjectivism, identify the factual claim.</li> </ol>
Fallacies:
1 Your personality is like a door: it opens and closes all the time.
2 David: I'm going to vote for Peter Camejo because I don't think that Davis is all that different from Simon and I'm concerned about the environment and wages. Didi: But if you vote for Camejo you will pull votes away from Davis and Simon may then defeat Gray Davis.
3 Gravetomb epitaph: "Sometimes we have few you die."	choices. For example, air. Either you breathe or
4. Person #1: I didn't student for my last quiz but credit stuff and I'll certainly study for the next quiz. Pers study for your quizzes then you'll never get a good grade.	on #2: You are in big danger because if you never
5 That student was rude to me and disruptive. I'	m going to lower their grade.
6 "Give the baby his pacifier so he'll stop crying. Every time I give him the pacifier he stops crying."
7 Those awful Democrats! They want to increase government spending on education again. This is the same outfit that gave us $10,000 toilets and government regulations up the yin-yang.
8 Drunk drivers are like cold-blooded murderers. The weapons are different but the result is the same. So drunk drivers who kill someone in an auto accident should receive the death penalty.
9. "It says here that smoke from wood-burning storgets into your house and is a health hazard." "No way. We just spent close to a thousand dollar true."
10 Let gays join the military? Give me a break. Go	od created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve.