Behavior Contract

for the Art Class or Studio

I know that my behavior determines my safety and success in the Art course I am enrolled in. My behavior not only has consequences for me, but effects other students as well.

The expectations of the Art Department are as follows.

1. Work on the assignments that are assigned in the art class.
2. Cooperate with and participate in activities and assignments.
3. Work on assigned art projects during the time provided.
4. Cooperate with other students enrolled in your class.
5. Pay for projects in a timely and responsible manner.
6. Finish art projects within the class guidelines.
7. Follow all safety rules for my particular Art Studio.

Standards for behavior in the particular art class or studio will be determined by the instructor. Depending on the severity of the violation and the judgment of the instructor, I can be removed from the Art Class or Studio either temporarily or permanently. This contract may be the only warning before the action is taken.

Reasons for Temporary or Permanent Removal from the Art Class or Studio.

1. Failure to follow the safety rules of the particular Art Class or Studio or endangering others or myself through unsafe acts.
2. Disrupting the learning activities or instructional process in the Art Class or Studio.
3. Inappropriate behavior in the Art Class or Studio.
4. Interacting with other students in an inappropriate or disruptive way.
5. Failure to participate in the assignments and activities in the Art Class or Studio.
6. Deliberately damaging or destroying materials, tools and equipment in the Art Class or Studio.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, AGREE THAT IF THE ABOVE VIOLATIONS ARE PERFORMED BY THE NAMED STUDENT THAT THEY SHALL BE SUBJECT TO THE IMMEDIATE AND POSSIBLY PERMANENT REMOVAL FROM THE CLASS OR STUDIO AND POSSIBLE REFERRAL TO AN ADMINISTRATOR.
