

Two old men who lived in a village deep in the country decided one day to take a trip to London. They asked one hiker: "Which is the best way to London?" And he answered: "Go straight on until you come to midway station. It is about 1000 meters from here. There you can catch the train for London. So they followed directions and were right there. To eat on the journey they had bought some bananas. They'd never eaten bananas before either. They got on the train and were marvelling at the speed. One man decided to try his banana, but just as he was taking a bite the train entered a tunnel. "Have you eaten your banana yet?" – he called out to his friend. "No", replied his friend. "Well, don't," said the first man. "I took a bite of mine and went blind!"
