

THE DOMESTIC CHURCH: FAMILY AND FAITH

"To maintain a joyful family requires much from both the parents and the children. Each member of the family has to become, in a special way, the servant of the others."

-John Paul II

An experienced mother once said that homeschooling will magnify your family's strengths and weaknesses. Focus first on building a healthy family life and a solid foundation for your educational efforts. The seeds of faith, hope and love will yield an abundant harvest whatever your educational choices may be.

The Domestic Church: Room by Room: A Study Guide for Mothers

by Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle

Don't cry over spilled milk. Transcend it. Pope John Paul II wrote that the little domestic Church, like the greater Church, needs to be constantly and intensely evangelized: hence its duty regarding permanent education in the faith. That's a tall order for busy Catholic mothers. You might even say it's as big as a house. You wouldn't want to clean the whole thing in one fell swoop, but if you take it one room at a time you'll get the job done. In a systematic course that's equally useful for groups as for individuals, this talented author shows how to remodel a home and form a family after the spiritual design of Holy Mother Church. $18.95

Grace Cafe

by Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle

Ever wish you had a cookbook for life as a Catholic wife and mother ... a step-by-step guide for various "domestic church" situations? Consider your prayers answered. The recipe theme may be lighthearted, fun even, but there's real nourishment to be had in this wonderful dish too. Inspiring entrees — practical ways Catholic women can live out their familial vocation — are seasoned with simple suggestions for answering Christ's universal call to holiness. Lovely poems conclude each chapter on a note of warmth that will lift hearts beyond the kitchen and up the path toward heaven. $14.95
