8. The teacher _

Name:

Verbs show an action or a state of being.

The verb tense places the verb in time. The three major tenses verbs can show are past, present, and future. Sometimes it helps kids to think of the past as "yesterday," the present as "today," and the future as "tomorrow."

Each verb tense has several options that allow you to be precise about what you mean. Let's look at the verb, "to ride."

A B A	Past	Present	Future
	I rode my bicycle. I was riding my bicycle. I had been riding my bicycle.	I ride my bicycle. I am riding my bicycle. I have been riding my bicycle.	I will ride my bicycle. I will be riding my bicycle. I am going to ride my bicycle.
