

We all have a responsibility to be good citizens by helping others and trying to make a difference. Many people around us display characteristics of being a good citizen.

Directions: Think about the people in your life: your school, your neighborhood, your church, your family. How do they show qualities of good citizenship?

Name people in your community that display characteristics of good citizenship.
How do they help others and their community?

Name people in your family that display characteristics of good citizenship.
How do they help others and their family?

Name ways that you display characteristics of good citizenship.
How do you help others in your family and your community?
