

Neuropsychological Strength/Weakness Worksheet

Use the following table to identify specific neuropsychological strengths/weaknesses of the individual of concern. Then, use this website to identify specific recommendations to address each identified weakness.

	Weakness	Strength
Weaknesses in Attention
• Arousal	_____	_____
• Focused Attention	_____	_____
• Divided Attention	_____	_____
• Sustained Attention	_____	_____
Weaknesses in Memory
• Encoding and Consolidation	_____	_____
• Retrieval	_____	_____
• Sensory Specific Memory Skills	_____	_____
• Verbal Memory Strengths	_____	_____
• Visual Memory Strengths	_____	_____
Weaknesses in Executive Functions
• General Strategies	_____	_____
• Disorders of Initiation	_____	_____
• Disorders of Termination	_____	_____
• Disorders of Self-regulation	_____	_____
Weaknesses in Visual-Spatial Abilities
• Visual Acuity	_____	_____
• Visual Field Cuts	_____	_____
• Depth Perception	_____	_____
• Spatial Neglect	_____	_____
• Figure Ground Discrimination	_____	_____
• Visual Closure	_____	_____
• Spatial Construction	_____	_____
• Spatial Disorientation	_____	_____
• Body Schema	_____	_____
Weaknesses in Language
• General Strategies	_____	_____
• Discourse	_____	_____
• Written Language	_____	_____
• Reading Comprehension	_____	_____
• Auditory Comprehension	_____	_____

*Rehabilitation of Neuropsychological Disorders:
A Practical Guideline for Rehabilitation Professionals (2nd Edition)*
<http://www.psypress.com/rehabilitation/>