

Practice to learn the key Vocabulary of all items.

10. Global communication: Who? Where? When? What?

1. Introduction answer the following questions:

- a. Why is the document about?
- b. Where has the information been?
- c. How quickly has it been written?

2. Main information: the title and content (the following points are):

- a. What kind of document is it?
- b. How was it written?
- c. Which source is used by the text writer?

3. Analysis

- 1. What are you told? What is he doing?
- 2. What is his message?
- 4. Look at the photographs in detail and imagine what the text says that with

11. Global communication

1. Introduction

- a. What is the text's intention?
- b. What are (1) or (2) governments doing?
- c. How many governments have been or are being?
- d. How many governments have been or are being?
- e. How many ideas must have been?
- f. How many sources are there for this?
- g. What other daily values might be assessed with this?

2. Analysis

- a. What is the author's intention?
- b. What other values are there for this?