

asking for opinions

Example 1

Tim: How do you like the new album by the band?
Susan: Oh?
Tim: What do you think about it?

Example 2

Tim: How do you like the new perfume bottle design?
Susan: Oh, I like it very much!
Tim: What do you think of it?

Example 3

Tim: How do you like the new dress?
Susan: Oh?
Tim: What do you think of it?
Susan: Oh, I like it very much!
Tim: What do you think of it?

Example 4

Tim: How do you like the new book by the author?
Susan: Oh, I like it very much!
Tim: What do you think of it?

My dictionary

Example 1

Woman: How do you like the new album by the band?
Tim: Oh, I like it very much!
Woman: What do you think of it?
Tim: Oh, I like it very much!
Woman: How do you like the new dress?
Tim: Oh, I like it very much!
Woman: How do you like the new book by the author?
Tim: Oh, I like it very much!
Woman: How do you like the new perfume bottle design?

asking for opinions

Man: How do you like the new album by the band?
Tim: Oh, I like it very much!
Man: How do you like the new dress?
Tim: Oh, I like it very much!
Man: How do you like the new book by the author?

asking for opinions

Tim: How do you like the new album by the band?
Man: Oh, I like it very much!
Tim: How do you like the new dress?
Man: Oh, I like it very much!