

It is believed that modern vertebrate animals all breathe through their different organs such as lungs, gills etc. or skin.

Write down their names.

Write down their organs.

Write and underline their organs.

How do they breathe? Write down the organs and their names.

Write and underline their organs.

1. Write down the organs of these fish:

Write down their

Write down their

Write down their

Write down their

Write down their

