

Student Learning Map of Unit: Don't you Dare Read

This Mrs. Dunphrey

Topic and Grade Level: Fiction novel/9th

Key Learnings:

1. Effective readers can dissect fictional text
2. Identifying text structure to aide comprehension

Unit Essential Question(s):

1. How does an effective reader use the elements of fiction to dissect text?
2. What type of text structure is used for the text? And how does it impact the story?

Optional Instructional Tools:

- novel
- guided reading packet
- vocabulary list
- teacher created worksheets

Concept: Fictional text	Concept: Narrative text	Concept: Inference	Concept: Vocab
Lesson Essential Question: 1-What will help the reader to effectively discuss fiction? 2-What is fiction? 3-How can you tell if a piece of text is fiction?	Lesson Essential Question: 1-What kind of fiction am I reading?	Lesson Essential Question: 1-What is the difference between stated and inferred? 2-How can I check what I infer?	Lesson Essential Question: 1-What words are important to aiding comprehension of the novel?
Vocab: Character, setting, plot, events, conflict, resolution, story map	Vocab: Memoir, journal, first person	Vocab: Infer, inference, stated	Vocab: Words 1-19 Words 20-32 Words 33-48 (on blue list)