

Career Day Writing Project

Have your child illustrate the cover of their writing project. Then, have your child write what they would like to be when they get older. Encourage them to state a reason why they would like to be that with the word "because".

