

Completed with the following conditions per 1001

FOUR-CLUE FOR COMFORT

On April 14th, 1912, _____ "unsinkable" Titanic struck an _____ iceberg in the middle passage _____ was packed with _____ of whom few _____ lives as there were not _____ facilities to accommodate _____ all.

In 1912 _____ a rugged island, called Florida, _____ a journalist, Muggie Robertson, _____ was about an _____ sailing from _____ middle passage. Filled _____ it struck an iceberg _____, killing many of the _____ on board. The name _____ the ship is Robertson's _____ was "Titan".

Six years _____ Florida was purchased, W. T. _____ well known operator, made a _____ ship in his honor for _____ sinking of the Titanic. W. T. _____ the _____ the great British ship _____.

Twenty three years after the _____ _____ William _____ was of sailing north _____ a pleasure boat for the _____ _____ water was calm and _____ were no signs of _____ but _____ couldn't _____ anything about it but that _____ on the Titanic which _____ goes down is similar _____, and he wanted to _____ a message. The cable _____ that prevented him from _____ so was the fact _____ the ship was _____ was _____ for _____ day it was April 14th. It _____ he had _____.

Partly _____, but it was the _____ that the Titanic had _____ the very day that _____ had been _____ trouble _____ stop himself for _____ warning and the ship _____ to a half a _____ yards away from a _____ sailing just below the light the ship. The ship's name? The Titanic.