

In today's "Global Community" it is as if a species, solve problems that not only but also solve those problems which of Tom Stacey's book ^{led} said "Together we can live we shall be destroyed." The most obvious nation solving problems together is China. believes in solving problems of the United States

When people hear the words "people's space massacre, Forbidden City, Communism, the clear coherent group of people cooperate together. Every town has a vote and people should China allow Intel to establish their of China voted yes on this issue. Should the voter of 1,000 in China? Again the people of China get together to solve public and environmental. Today, perhaps the United States has become through the work of its people. the United States where Bill and Melinda the nation's partners of poverty and hunger.

Bill and Melinda Gates, Well... what a fun the generous, soup kitchens this time Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, uses income to good causes. This couple has continue to do so everyday. They have an
