

Exam 1/16

Course:	PHIL 1000
Course Number:	1000
Section:	001
Assignment Name:	Exam 1/16

Compulsory standards

Reading

1. The Philosophy of the Social Sciences and the Philosophy of Language and the Philosophy of Mind

Block 1: Philosophy

Proposing the meaning of formal and informal logic, deductive and inductive, identity and cognitive effects related to the social environment.

Proposing the meaning and historical steps in using inductive, identity, and cognitive effects in the social environment, a deductive and inductive approach.

Methods

- Identify evidence based on the problem
- Identify the pattern of inductive logic
- Identify the range of inductive logic

A. Knowledge objectives

The student will be able to explain the meaning of the problem
The student will be able to identify the pattern of inductive logic
The student will be able to identify the range of inductive logic

B. 1. Philosophy

1. Identity
2. The pattern of inductive logic
3. Inductive logic and deductive logic

C. 1. Philosophy

1. Identity
2. Inductive logic
3. Deductive logic

D. 1. Philosophy

1. Identity